GOLF CLASSIC PROCEEDS

Now in its 33rd year, Doylestown Health Foundation's Annual Golf Classic has raised nearly $1.9 million cumulatively in support of services and programs at Doylestown Health. This year's proceeds will benefit Interventional Radiology and the Teen Volunteer Scholarship Program at Doylestown Hospital.

Investing in Advanced Imaging

Using medical imaging to guide minimally invasive surgical procedures, Interventional Radiology (IR) delivers a full spectrum of diagnoses and treatment options for a wide range of conditions. Less invasive techniques can result in faster recovery and improve patient experience. Funds will support equipment upgrades and critically needed expansion and renovations of the current IR space to accommodate the increase in demand.

Teen Volunteer Scholarship Program

Since 2015, over $76 thousand has been raised in support of the Teen Volunteer Scholarship Program. The Golf Classic also sponsors the Exemplary Teen Volunteer Award, honoring a teen who donated the most volunteer hours, demonstrated an exceptional commitment to the Teen Volunteer Program, and is a true leader among their peers.
